Phantom released on DVD in USA

Phantom is the first feature film directed by Jonathan SOLER, shot in Tokyo, Japan, and starring Yuki FUJITA and Masato TSUJIOKA (Suicide Club; A Snake of June; Bullet Ballet...).

The film is about a young couple who spends a night talking about social and existential issues. It is an art house film edited in a dream-like style with various footages superimposed on off-screen dialogues.

In July 2013, Phantom was released on DVD in France and received some very positive reviews.

SYNOPSIS OF PHANTOM:

In Tokyo, a girl and her boyfriend spend a night talking about their life, their precarious condition and their difficulties to earn a living, their place in the world, if ever they have one...
